Independent Thinking Exercise

Report for the session 2015-16

Independent thinking exercise is aimed at intellectually stimulating students to make independent opinion about various economic, political, social and ethical issues and trust their own judgment. The activity not only promotes independent thinking but also provides a platform for expression of the thoughts. For the current academic year, the first session of ITE was held with 50 students who were filtered in the subsequent sessions. The students were evaluated on the basis of Originality, Logic and Conviction with which they put forth their views. After being shortlisted in the preliminary round, students strived to clinch the title of best Independent Thinkers by passing through five successive levels of increasing difficulty with details as follows:

Level	ITE topics	Date
Prelims.	Wisdom does not come with age.	03-09-15
1	Do severe punishments deter crime?	29-09-15
2	Corporate social responsibility in India: Issues and Challenges.	05-11-15
3	Future Lies With The Disciplined.	19-01-16
4	Ostentatious Living And Its Behavioral Implications.	09-02-16
5	Role Of Youth In Social Transformation.	16-02-16

On 16th-feb-2016 the Grand – Finale of Independent thinking activity was held and the students namely Gurkirat Singh of BBA III, Raghav Aneja of B.ComI and Danish Kapoor of B.comI were adjudged the best Independent Thinkers.

REPORT INDEPENDENT THINKING EXERCISE (2016-17)

Thinking independently is a virtue which creates an independent identity of a person. Our college is responsibly putting best of its efforts to holistically develop and constructively channelize the energy of students. To enable students in having independent opinion about various economic, political, social and ethical issues, Independent thinking exercise is carried out by the college. Independent thinking exercise is aimed at enabling the students to make and trust their own judgment instead of just depending on others' opinions and judgment; even if they contradict to what others say. This in no means indicate that students should become adamant and not remain open but they should develop the capacity to analyze the issue from different perspectives and then make up their mind. This exercise intellectually stimulates the students and they develop a rational approach to form an opinion on various issues. During the current year, a preliminary round and subsequent five sessions of the exercise were organized. The preliminary round was conducted on 14th September, 2016 on the topic 'Values: do they change with time or are they eternal?'. Following are the details of five sessions of the activity:

Level	Topic	Number of students	Dates
I	Fostering discipline among youngsters: why and way.	37	8 th November, 2016
II	Indians can subordinate their individual interest to general interest.	22	17 th January, 2017
III	Can Education End All Evils?	14	7 th February, 2017
IV	Challenges of Educational Leadership	10	20 th February, 2017
V	Past, Present and Future of Sports in India	6	23 rd February, 2017

The activity not only promoted independent thinking but also provided a platform for expression of the thoughts. On 23rd February, 2017, the Grand – Finale of Independent thinking exercise was held. Panel of judges comprised of Dr. Leenu Narang and Mr. Sahil Ghai. Three best performers who could cross six levels of increasing difficulty were adjudged as 'Best Independent Thinkers' namely: Ms. Jashanjot Kaur Grewal of BBA IV B, Mr. Nitin Nanak Grover of B.Com VI C and Mr. Danish Kapoor of B.Com IV B. Team of Independent Thinking Exercise comprised of Ms. Puja Jain, Ms. Priya Bali and Ms. Sugandh Ahuja.

Independent Thinking Exercise (2020 - 21)

Report

Thinking independently is a virtue which creates an independent identity of a person. The college is responsibly putting best of its efforts to holistically develop and constructively channelize the energy of students. In order to enable students in having independent opinion about various issues, Independent Thinking Exercise is carried out by the college. The activity aims to motivate students to think independently and express their opinions on various social and national issues with logic and conviction. In this exercise, students have to cross successive levels of difficulty and make their place for finals. On 28th April, 2021, Sri Aurobindo College of Commerce and Management, Ludhiana conducted the final level of the activity. Principal, Dr. Ajay Sharma appreciated the participants, and congratulated Aashray Jain (B. Com IV C), Aadvik Thapar (B. Com IV B), Harmanbeer Singh Waraich (B. Com VI A) who were adjudged as Best Independent Thinkers by Prof. Pooja Mehta and Prof. Sahil Ghai. The students expatiated their views on the topic "Is work life balance a myth?" The activity was coordinated by the team having Prof. Puja Jain, Prof. Swati Gupta, and Ms. Sanjana Sankhyan, Mr. Aashray Jain, and Ms. Navya Sharma (student coordinators).

Report

'Art of public speaking'

Sri Aurobindo college of Commerce and Management organised an interactive session under 'Shape the mind programme' for the students of B.Com. and BBA second, fourth and sixth semester on 20-05-2021. Dr. Vikas Arora, Director, Sunshine Group of Institutions, Rajkot, Gujarat and a motivational speaker talked on the theme 'Art of public speaking'. Dr. Ajay Sharma, Principal of the college formally welcomed the resource person. Mr. Alish Jain, student coordinator, introduced the speaker. The speaker shared various tips on the theme based on his vast experience and tried to connect with the audience using meaningful couplets and examples like that of Swami Vivekanand. He instilled confidence in the audience and repetitively assured that everyone can learn the art of public speaking. He creatively showcased the use of voice intonation and guided the students to plan, prepare, practice, use sense of humor, smile and be cautious of their body language etc. Ms. Puja Jain, Dr. Leenu Anand, and Ms. Richa Jain along with another student coordinator, Ms. Yashika Shah coordinated the activity. College expressed gratitude to the speaker for effectively shaping the minds of the students. 211 participants attended the session.
